Revels Houston is a community based performing arts organization creating community through multicultural traditions encompassing music, drama, and dance and family-oriented seasonal productions, community celebrations, and educational outreach programs.

This fiscal year was highlighted by our return to a theatrical venue for “The Christmas Revels” and a joint Revels Houston/Texas Seaport Museum production in Galveston.

Program accomplishments:

- Revelry performed at 6 elementary schools in Houston Area schools sharing the story of Irish immigrants to Texas in cooperation with Young Audiences of Houston
- Revels Houston and the Texas Seaport Museum sponsored a joint production at the Elisa sharing the story of European immigration to Galveston.
- Revelry had 5 performances at local hospitals and senior living centers and 5 other performances in the Houston area.
- The Christmas Revels had 4 performances featuring Applachia at Houston Community College’s Heinen Theatre
- Revels Houston reached 4,800 people in the Houston area through “The Christmas Revels” and Revelry performances.
